Flexible GRI Real Estate Investment Series (New Format!)

Complete the Investment & Management series (previously GRI 105) over four separate sessions, each three hours long. CE credits are awarded immediately upon completing each session, but the full 12 hours of GRI credit will only be granted after completing all four sessions. You can take these sessions in any order, as long as you complete all GRI courses within the 5-year deadline.

- GRI Real Estate Investment: Investment Essentials - Date TBD (Virtual)
- GRI Real Estate Investment: Investment Analysis - Date TBD (Virtual)
- GRI Real Estate Investment: Advanced Investment Concepts - Date TBD (Virtual)
- GRI Real Estate Investment: Choosing the Right Investment - Date TBD (Virtual)
- Instructor: Josh Cadillac

Many REALTORS® have found the GRI designation to be a game-changer in their careers, reporting higher client satisfaction and increased referrals. This designation sets you apart in a competitive market, showing your commitment to professional development and expertise.

Why Pursue the GRI Designation?

- Gain advanced real estate knowledge to serve your clients better.
- Increase your professional credibility and marketability.
- Earn CE credits while working toward your designation.
